S. 2494

To counter malign influence, require transparency, and promote accountability within the United Nations system, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 28, 2021

Mrs. BLACKBURN introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To counter malign influence, require transparency, and promote accountability within the United Nations system, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “United Nations Trans-5 parency and Accountability Act of 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7 In this Act:

8 (1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
9 TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-

(C) the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives; and

2 State” means a country that is a Member State of 3 the United Nations.

5 NATIONS.—The term “senior-level employee of the 9 level of D-1 or higher.

10 (6) UNITED NATIONS ENTITY.—The term
11 “United Nations entity” means—

- 12 (A) the United Nations General Assembly;
- 13 (B) the United Nations Economic and So-14 cial Council;
- 15 (C) the United Nations Security Council;

6 TITLE I—COUNTERING MALIGN
7 INFLUENCE OPERATIONS
8 WITHIN THE UNITED NA-
9 TIONS SYSTEM

10 SEC. 101. FINDINGS.

11 Congress finds the following:

12 (1) Article 100 of the United Nations Charter 13 provides that United Nations Secretariat staff “shall 14 not seek or receive instructions from any govern-
15 ment or from any authority external to the Organi-16 zation”.

1 United Nations have repeatedly drafted procurement
2 contracts designed to ensure that Russian airframes
3 and pilots have an unfair advantage when bidding 4 for these contracts.

5 (4) According to Human Rights Watch, the 6 People’s Republic of China (referred to in this sec-7 tion as the “PRC”) has used its leadership roles
8 within the United Nations to block nongovernmental
9 organizations critical of the PRC from being accred-10 ited to the United Nations. PRC diplomats have vio-
11 lated rules of the United Nations by harassing activ-12 ists by photographing and filming them on the prop-
13 erty of the United Nations, as well as contacting em-
14 ployees of the United Nations in efforts to intimi-15 date and harass them.

16 (5) In 2013, PRC authorities detained Cao
17 Shunli after she tried to attend trainings in Geneva 18 on the Human Rights Council. She was arrested at 19 Beijing Airport and disappeared for several weeks.
20 She had previously called on the Chinese Communist 21 Party to work with civil society during the drafting 22 of the PRC’s second Universal Periodic Review, a 23 mechanism by which the United Nations Human 24 Rights Council reviews the human rights records of 25 Member States. After 5.5 months in detention, she

1 died in a military hospital in Beijing. When non-2 governmental organizations at the Human Rights 3 Council called for a moment of silence in memory of 4 Cao, the PRC delegation blocked the request.

5 (6) In a 2019 interview with China Central Tele-
6 vision, Wu Hongbo, the former Under Secretary 7 General of the United Nations and head of the 8 United Nations Department of Economic and Social 9 Affairs (referred to in this section as “UNDESA”), 10 stated publicly that as an employee of the United 11 Nations, he prioritized the PRC’s interests above the 12 impartiality of the United Nations system. When 13 discussing how he demanded the United Nations po-
14 lice expel Dolkun Isa, an accredited nongovern-15 mental organization participant, from the United 16 Nations headquarters, Wu Hongbo described him as 17 a “Xinjiang separatist” and bragged about intimi-
18 dating an Assistant Secretary General who com-19 plained. He went on to say, “I think being a Chinese 20 diplomat means one can’t be careless, when it is 21 about protecting China’s national interest and safe-22 ty. We have to strongly defend the motherland’s in-23 terests.”.

24 (7) Despite this action, Wu Hongbo was suc-25 cceeded as Under Secretary General and head of 1 UNDESA by Liu Zhenmin, another PRC national.

2 Under Secretary General Liu continues to prioritize 3 PRC national interests above the impartiality re-4 quired in his role.

5 (8) On September 19, 2019, the Department of 6 State expelled two members of the Permanent Mis-7 sion of Cuba to the United Nations for “attempts to 8 conduct influence operations against the United 9 States”.

10 SEC. 102. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

11 It is the policy of the United States—

12 (1) to identify, report, and hold accountable
13 Member States that engage in malign influence op-14 erations and United Nations employees who act in-15 consistently with the principals of impartiality en-16 shrined in the United Nations Charter;

17 (2) to oppose the election as the head of any 18 United Nations entity of nationals from Member 19 States that engage in malign influence operations; 20 and

21 (3) to support Taiwan’s membership or mean-22 ingful participation, as appropriate, in relevant 23 United Nations entities in which Taiwan has ex-24 pressed an interest in participating.

1 SEC. 103. DESIGNATION OF SENIOR OFFICIAL.

2 The Secretary of State shall designate a Senate-con-
3 firmed senior-level official of the United States Mission
4 to the United Nations—

5 (1) to provide guidance regarding implementa-6 tion of the policies specified in section 102;

7 (2) to fulfill the reporting requirements under 8 section 104; and

9 (3) to coordinate the implementation of this 10 title within the United States Government.

11 SEC. 104. ANNUAL REPORTS ON MALIGN INFLUENCE OPER-12 ATIONS.

13 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than August 1, 2022, 14 and annually thereafter for 4 years, the Secretary of State 15 shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees 16 an unclassified report, which may include a classified 17 annex, regarding malign influence operations.

18 (b) CONTENTS.—Each report submitted under sub-19 section (a) shall include, with respect to the preceding 12-20 month period—

21 (1) a list of Member States determined to be 22 engaged in malign influence operations;

23 (2) actions inconsistent with the principle of im-
24 partiality enshrined in the United Nations Charter 25 by the government of any Member State described 26 in paragraph (1); and

4 SEC. 105. IMPLEMENTATION.

5 The President shall direct the United States Perma-6 nent Representative to the United Nations to use the 7 voice, vote, and influence of the United States at the 8 United Nations to implement the policies specified in sec-9 tion 102.

10 SEC. 106. PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS IN RESPONSE TO MA-

11 LIGN INFLUENCE OPERATIONS.

12 (a) POLICY.—It shall be the policy of the United 13 States—

19 (b) DESIGNATIONS OF COUNTRIES AS MALIGN GLOB-
20 AL ACTORS.—

(1) ANNUAL REVIEW.—Not later than September 1, 2022, and annually thereafter for the following 4 years, the President shall—

24 (A) review the reports required under section 104 and any other available evidence or in-

25

1 formation to determine whether the government
2 of a country included in the most recent report 3 required under section 104 has engaged in ma-4 lign influence operations that threatened the in-5 terests or security of the United States during 6 the preceding 12-month period or since the date 7 of the last review of the country under this sub-8 paragraph, whichever period is longer; and 9 (B) designate as a malign global actor

10 each country the government of which has en-11 gaged in such operations that have so threat-12 ened the interests or security of the United 13 States.

14 (2) CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION.—Whenever 15 the President designates a country as a malign glob-16 al actor under paragraph (1)(B), the President shall, 17 as soon as practicable after the designation is made,
18 transmit to the appropriate congressional commit-19 tees the designation, including an explanation for 20 why the designation was made.

21 SEC. 107. REPORT ON ACCOUNTABILITY OF SENIOR-LEVEL
22 EMPLOYEES OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

23 Not later than 90 days after the date of the enact-24 ment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall submit to 25 the appropriate congressional committees a report on fea-

1 sible mechanisms and ongoing efforts to increase the ac-
2 countability of senior-level employees of the United Na-
3 tions.

4 TITLE II—SUPPORTING UNITED 5 STATES ENGAGEMENT IN THE
6 UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM

7 SEC. 201. OFFICE OF MULTILATERAL STRATEGY AND PER- 8 SONNEL.

9 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State shall es-
10 tablish an Office of Multilateral Strategy and Personnel 11 as a separate office within the Bureau of International Or-

13 appoint an individual to be the head of that office.

14 (b) DUTIES.—The head of the Office of Multilateral 15 Strategy and Personnel shall—

16 (1) advocate for the employment of United 17 States citizens by all international organizations of 18 which the United States is a member, including the 19 United Nations system;

20 (2) coordinate the interagency support of non-21 United States candidates for leadership or oversight 22 roles within such international organizations when—

23 (A) no United States citizen candidate has 24 been nominated for election to such a leadership 25 role; and

(B) providing such support is in the interest of the United States;

3 (3) develop and maintain a publicly accessible 4 database of open positions at such international or-5 ganizations;

(4) provide details on how United States citizens may submit applications for such positions;

8 (5) communicate regularly with members of 9 Congress to solicit the names of qualified candidates 10 for such positions;

11 (6) maintain a comprehensive and current list
12 of all United States citizens employed by such inter-13 national organizations; and

18 (c) COORDINATION.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—The head of the Office of 20 Multilateral Strategy and Personnel shall coordinate 21 all nominations by the relevant agencies of the Fed-22 eral Government for election within the United Na-

16 less than 50 percent the number of Junior Professional 20 Act.

21 (b) COORDINATION.—Not later than December 31 of

7 TITLE III—TRANSPARENCY AND 8 ACCOUNTABILITY FOR 9 UNITED STATES CONTRIBU-
10 TIONS TO THE UNITED NA-
11 TIONS

12 SEC. 301. FINDINGS.

13 Congress finds the following:

14 (1) As underscored by repeated revelations of 15 waste, fraud, and abuse, oversight and account-16 ability mechanisms within the United Nations sys-17 tem remain deficient, despite decades of reform at-18 tempts, including those initiated by Secretaries Gen-19 eral of the United Nations.

20 (2) Notwithstanding the personal intentions of 21 any Secretary General of the United Nations to pro-22 mote institutional transparency and accountability
23 within the United Nations system, the Secretary
24 General lacks the power to impose far-reaching man-

1 agement reforms without the concurrence of the 2 General Assembly.

3 (3) The United Nations Office of Internal Over-4 sight Services (referred to in this section as the 5 “OIOS”) is tasked with providing transparency and 6 accountability to Member States.

7 (4) The United States successfully led efforts
8 within the General Assembly to expand OIOS, re-9 sulting in increased independence of the office and 10 an enhanced ability to expose fraud, waste, abuse, 11 and other misconduct.

12 (5) However, to an unacceptable degree, major 13 donor states, including the United States, lack ac-14 cess to reasonably detailed, reliable information on 15 the use of funding made available through single-16 country trust funds, and the outcomes and results 17 stemming from United Nations activities that would 18 allow them to determine the overall performance of 19 the United Nations system.

20 SEC. 302. ANNUAL REPORT ON FINANCIAL CONTRIBU-
21 TIONS.

22 Section 4(b) of the United Nations Participation Act
23 of 1945 (22 U.S.C. 287b(b)) is amended—

24 (1) by striking “Not later than” and inserting 25 the following:

1 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than”; and

2 (2) by adding at the end the following:

3 “(2) CONTENTS.—Each report required under 4 this subsection shall set forth, for the fiscal year 5 covered by the report, information relating to—

6 “(A) the total amount of all United States 7 contributions to international organizations in 8 which the United States participates as a mem-9 ber;

10 “(B) the approximate percentage of United 11 States contributions to each international orga-
12 nization, when compared with all contributions 13 to any such international organization, from 14 any source; and

15 “(C) for each United States contribution, 16 information relating to—

17 “(i) the amount of the contribution;

18 “(ii) a description of the contribution 19 (including whether assessed or voluntary);

20 “(iii) the department or agency of the 21 United States Government responsible for 22 the contribution;

23 “(iv) the purpose of the contribution;
24 and

1 “(v) the identity of the international 2 organization receiving the contribution.

3 “(3) PUBLIC AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION.—
4 Not later than 14 days after submitting each report 5 required under this subsection, the Director of the 6 Office of Management and Budget shall post a pub-7 lic version of the report on a text-based, searchable, 8 and publicly available internet website.”.
